

National Charity Roundtable
Code of Conduct

NCR, Inc. - The Woodlands Chapter is an organization for parents and sons dedicated to providing leadership and philanthropy to enrich their community.

I hereby support the NCR program and mission by following the Member Code of Conduct that follows:

- 1. I will demonstrate a supportive and positive attitude towards all board members, advisors, parents and sons.
- 2. I understand my responsibilities in helping my child enjoy the NCR experience, and I will comply with the NCR Vision and Creed.
- 3. My child and I will respect the rights and dignity of all members, advisors, and parents regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
- 4. I understand that behavior that demeans a member, advisor, board member or other parents, is subject to disciplinary action by the NCR Board of Directors as outlined in Section G of the NCR Standards.
- 5. I will read the NCR procedures and rules and will follow the guidelines established by the NCR Board of Directors.
- 6. I am responsible for ensuring my child's attendance at meetings and events to fulfill the requirements of NCR.
- 7. I understand that my attitude toward my child, other members, advisors, board members and the public influences my child's values and behavior in the community. Criticism and disrespect undermines the purpose of our mission.
- 8. When our parents, Pages, Knights, & Squires are representing the NCR organization during events/activities/meetings, they are required to conduct themselves in a courteous and polite manner.
